CALL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO VIA PANORAMICA WINTER ISSUE 2025

VIA PANORAMICA is accepting contributions for its thematic and varia sections, reviews and translations for our 2025 winter issue!

THEMATIC SECTION

Between April 9 and 11, 2025, NOVA FCSH hosted the International Conference on Victorian and American Myths in Video Games, bringing together scholars from a wide range of countries and academic backgrounds to discuss how video games revisit Victorian and American myths in novel ways. Building on this event, Via Panoramica invites contributions for its thematic session, and it is especially interested in articles that combine game studies with one or more of the following topics:

- Victorian, neo-Victorian, and/or adaptation studies;
- Steampunk, cyberpunk, solarpunk, and/or retrofuturism;
- American or transnational American studies;
- Utopian and dystopian studies;
- Speculative narratives;
- Digital humanities or transmedia storytelling.

VARIA SECTION

Besides our thematic section, VIA PANORAMICA also invites submissions on topics, authors and works within Anglo-American Studies that fall into the journal's global scope for our "Varia" section.
